

University of Bergamo (Italy)
in collaboration with Fairleigh
Dickinson University (US)

Bergamo (Italy)

June 2018

2018 HUMANITIES SUMMER SCHOOL

In the enchanting city of Bergamo, an intensive program for University students (Bachelor and Master) with courses focused on humanistic and social fields, linked in particular to the Italian and European dimension.

Courses: 30 hours (3 hours/day, Monday-Friday) for each course

Period: 4-16 June 2018

1. Culture and Politics in XIXth Century Italy: Literature, Art and Music in the Making of the Nation.

Prof. Marco Sirtori (University of Bergamo)

2. Multilingual settings and cross-cultural communication.

Prof. Piera Molinelli (University of Bergamo)

Period: 18-30 June 2018

3. 'Make' in Italy: an Introduction to Entrepreneurship.

Prof. Tommaso Minola (University of Bergamo)

4. Italy: Land of Migrations. A Journey through literature, films, documentaries.

Prof. Gloria Pastorino (Fairleigh Dickinson University)

- All the courses are held in English
- Possibility to choose 1 or 2 courses within the same period
- "International" classes with maximum 25 students per class
- Recognition of 5 academic credit for each course

COSTS of the SUMMER SCHOOL

- Free for Unibg students and Erasmus students;
- Free for students from partner Universities;
- 150€/course for others;

Possibility of recommended accommodation in the very city centre and at a competitive price (about 350€ for 2 weeks)

How to enroll? Please send an e-mail to: humanitiessummerschool@unibg.it

For further information, visit: Unibg or Facebook

Deadline for registration: 10 May 2018

SIGN UP NOW!!!

