

How to apply for the 33rd International Helsinki Days 2020

International Helsinki Days (IHD) is an international seminar organized by the Student Union of Hanken School of Economics. Every year approximately 35 students from all around the world take part in the IHD seminar which strives to introduce the Finnish business culture, economy and lifestyle. At the same time, we make new friends and have an awesome week!

Applications to the International Helsinki Days 2020 seminar will be sent by e-mail to ihdapplications@shs.fi by the 16th of December 2019, after which we will carefully consider all applications. Feel free to be creative (you can e.g. include a résumé, video clips, pictures or links to social media accounts in your application). We still want you to AT LEAST provide the following information for your application to be accepted:

- Full name
- Gender
- Date of birth
- Nationality
- Telephone number
- University and major
- Year of graduation
- Allergies
- T-shirt size
- Contact person in case of emergency
- Contact person's telephone number
- Do you have travel insurance?
- Have you visited Finland before?
- Describe Finland in three words

And most importantly:

- A picture and a description of yourself
- Why should we choose you for the seminar?
- What do you expect from the IHD week?

This information is used to screen the applicants and make the necessary preparations for the week. Unfortunately, we can only accept a limited number of participants to the seminar - so be quick and apply today!

If you have any questions about the International Helsinki Days 2020 seminar or the application process, feel free to contact our International Coordinators. (ihdapplications@shs.fi).
