Workshop "Research without Borders"

Friday, November 13, 2020 – 09:30-15:00h

Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Campus South, Building 11.30 (Präsidiumsgebäude), Engelbert-Arnold-Straße 2, 76131 Karlsruhe, 3rd floor (Senate Hall)

Preliminary Program (as of Oct 15, 2020)

9:30-10h Arrival of participants; Welcome Coffee
   Explanation of Social Distancing/hygiene concept

Welcome and Introductory Statements
   Professor Dr. Thomas Hirth, Vice President for Innovation and International Affairs, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT)
   Prof. Dr. Mathieu Schneider, Vice President for Culture & Science with and for Society Université de Strasbourg

Lightning Talks of researchers on current projects presented by Prof. Dr. Caroline Robertson-von Trotha, founding director of the Centre for Cultural and General Studies (ZAK), KIT

Breakout sessions
   • Editing a joint publication by researchers at risk – exchange of ideas
   • Peer-to-Peer talks: Experiences of researchers past the funding periods of programs such as PSI
   • Post-funding perspectives – exploring opportunities offered by a broader regional scope

There will be coffee and lunch breaks for recreation and networking.

Registration:

Owed to the current situation, the number of participants as to be limited to 20 persons on site. Please use this form to register for the event until Oct 30 at the latest.

We are working hard to organize this event as an opportunity for personal encounters of course ensuring every participant’s safety. However, in view of the uncertainties related to the development of the pandemic we might have to introduce adaptations to both the program, time allocations and formats.